We Can't Talk

Without showing the condition of our teeth. Every laugh exposes them. In order not to be ashamed of them, let us use that standard dentifrice, SOZODONT, which is sure to keep them white and spotless. No tartar can encrust them, no canker affect the enamel, no species of decay infect the dental bone. If SOZODONT is regularly used, it is a botanical preparation, and its beneficial effects on the teeth and gums are marvelous, as it removes all discolorations, and renders the gums hard and rosy.

TO-DAY'S ELECTION.

A Presidential election in the United States is an event of deep and solemn significance. No one can be unmoved at the thought that to-day a Nation of fifty millions of people has decided what its government shall be for the next four years. Over eight millions of voters have since sunrise expressed their political views at the polls. The manner of that expression is in itself impressive. The white folded ballots, dropped silently into their receptacles, have told the story.

Let us hope, for the credit of the country, that the election everywhere throughout the land has been peacefully conducted, and that reports of fraud and intimidation at the polls in the South may be few. An honest and fair count in that section can hardly be expected. The country is, however, likely to be spared any such agitation as followed the election of 1876. We look for such a decisive majority for Garfield as will leave no room to turn the scale for Hancock by the weight of fraudulent returns.

The choice to-day has been between parties. It has not been a selection between two candidates for the highest office in the land, but between the representatives of two great political bodies, of opposing views of government. We are assured that the result will prove the continued confidence of the people in the party which carried the country through the civil war, and under which its prosperity has steadily grown during the past sixteen years.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The newspapers are full of items about Sara Bernhardt, the greatest of living actresses, who has just arrived at New York. One of her peculiarities is that she is the mother of several children but has never been married. She says she is unable to tell her children who their respective fathers are. In spite of these eccentricities, the woman has been admitted to the best society in Europe. It remains to be seen how she will be treated in New York. A preacher of that city thus advertised her last Sunday: "I cannot refrain in this connection from referring to an unholly woman of shame who has come to this city to flaunt herself on a public stage. I hope that none of you will so degrade yourselves as to encourage her immoralities in any way."

The Sun says that in the coming sailing match on the Thames for all nations, four countries will each be represented by two of their best oarsmen—Canada, by Henlan and Ross; Australia, by Trickett and Laycock; the United States, by Riley and Plaisted; England, by Boyd and Elliott. This is a fine array of oarsmen, and yet there are a dozen others entered only a little inferior, including Blackman, Nicholson, Higgins, Hawdon, and Homer. The entries now number twenty; they ought to be cut down to ten or twelve at most.

The population of hell is likely to receive considerable additions by-and-by, through false swearing over the Morey forgery. Much contradictory testimony has been given in the trial of the forger Philip, and some of the witnesses must have lied like the very devil. A poor old woman made affidavit that she was the mother of the mythical H. L. Morey. She has since sworn that she was not his mother, and never saw him, but was bribed to testify that he was her son. The Democrats who hired an old woman to perjure herself are ornaments to their party.

A young woman has been sadly deceiving the ladies of Minneapolis, Minnesota. She appeared in the place as a medical student and wore masculine garments. Passing herself off as a nephew of August Belmont of New York, she made love to a number of girls and got free board for a year out of a prospective mother-in-law. It was eighteen months before the imposition was discovered.

An Irish landowner's life is not a happy one. Lord Clancurry, who has the misfortune to be possessed of a considerable area of the "auld sod," lately received a letter containing the cheerful intelligence that the Ribbonmen had determined to shoot him. It was suggested that he take some steps in the matter. If he is wise he has probably stepped out of the country.

This item shows the extent of internal revenue frauds in the South. Collector Clark, under date of Atlanta, Ga., telegraphs: "I have seized within thirty days thirty illicit distilleries, two teams and about 1,000 gallons of illicit spirits. Nine of the distilleries were in the notorious Red Oak neighborhood. As soon as the stills are torn out in that section others are at once set up and the illicit work resumed."

The Modoc Independent makes this sagacious observation: "This paper cannot undertake to turn an individual out of this town because he raises disturbances. Let those who have lots of muscle do the driving."

East Oakland has been startled by the suicide of a well-known merchant, Joseph Chessman. He resides with his mother-in-law, Mrs. Know. No explanation is offered of the cause of his desperate deed.

General Hancock said to a number of veterans Saturday who called on him that he wanted no coerced votes cast for him, and deprecated the influencing of employes by their employers.

The mining camp of Lundy, Mono county, Cal., is coming into prominence. The S. F. Bulletin remarks that it has grown this summer from insignificance into a prosperous mining camp.

Henry Ward Beecher says this is no time to ask questions as to one's religious belief, and that if asked to preside over Bob Ingersoll's meeting he would do so.

The Secretary of the National Republican Committee last night telegraphed that the Committee estimate Garfield's Electoral votes at not less than 219.

John Kelly denies the story in Saturday's New York Herald, about trading with General Arthur. The matter has made considerable talk.

Oregon had her first snow of the season on Saturday. Snow fell in Umatilla county to the depth of an inch, but quickly disappeared.

Mount Vesuvius is in eruption.

New York is safe for Garfield.

Virginia's Defaulting Treasurer.

The Chronicle says: Carrick the defaulting County Treasurer, has not yet succeeded in securing bondsmen for his bail and is confined in the County Jail. The examination of his accounts made by the Commissioners, shows the deficiency to be as reported on Saturday. The Sheriff is in charge of the office, but the result has been sealed up and no business is being transacted. The Commissioners held a meeting to-day (Monday) and received the resignation of Mr. Carrick, but deferred action until 11 A. M. Thursday, when it is probable that the man elected to fill the vacancy. The vacancy on the Republican ticket has been filled by the nomination of Frank Fredericks.

Angora Goats.

The Battle Mountain Messenger states that C. P. Bailey, of San Jose, is shipping 500 head of Angora goats to Colorado. He sold 800 head from his Mill Creek ranch to parties in Wyoming Territory last spring and they are doing so well that it has opened out a new industry in that part of the country. E. L. Bailey, who has charge of the Mill Creek ranch, brought in some Angora bucks to be sent with the shipment from San Jose. They will be put in with the first shipment when it passes through Battle Mountain on their way east.

Taking Stock in the N. & O. R. R.

From E. V. Spencer, who has lately been devoting considerable time and attention to the projected Nevada and Oregon railroad, the Lassen Advertiser glean the following information: Mr. Spencer, acting for the company, has already succeeded in getting subscriptions to the extent of 165 shares in Susanville, with the promised subscription of at least 100 more. There are other parties yet to be seen, and some who have not made any decision. Mr. Spencer thinks it not only possible but very probable that fully 300 shares will be subscribed in Susanville and vicinity, and with such a flattering showing that many more subscriptions can be obtained outside.

A Dog's Fearful Bite.

Says the Carson Times: Sebastian Gennaro, for several years past employed by the El Dorado Wood and Flume Co., at Brown's station, met with a severe and painful experience at the Roma Hotel yesterday, and now thinks dogs are dangerous playfellows. While leaning over to pat the large black dog belonging to Raffetto, proprietor of the hotel, the animal sprang at him and inflicted a terrible bite on his lower jaw, tearing a deep gash from his lip to the chin, and also a further severe wound under his chin. His injuries at once received surgical attention, and are not only severe but dangerous. The dog still lives but should not long.

For fine boots, fine shoes, fine gaiters, fine socks or stockings, fine slippers or foot-gear of any kind, go to the Mechanics' Store.

A Curious Liquor Law.

Over in Redding, according to the Independent, they have a stringent liquor law, and it is necessary to get a written order from a druggist in order to procure a drink. The following is given as a sample order:

"Let Johnnie have one-half glass of whiskey."

Charge to him."

Full weight and honest measure at the Mechanics' Store.

An Unexpected Answer.

The Orangethorpe Sunday School celebrated its sixth anniversary last Sabbath afternoon. In the review of past lessons the question was asked: "What did God do on the seventh day?" (referring to the creation of the world.) Answer: "He rested." What else did He do? Promptly came the answer from a little eight-year-old boy: "He read his newspaper."

The stage running between Nevada City and North San Juan was stopped Saturday afternoon by two masked men. They attempted to blow open Wells, Fargo & Co's box, and while at work Supervisor Robert Huchins, who was on board, attacked them and captured one. The other escaped. The Sheriff's posse started in pursuit.

At the Hotel de Redwood, Santa Cruz, a blast was put in a boulder Monday last. It hung fire fourteen hours, and went off as the men were returning the next day. They narrowly escaped.

Change of Place.

Capt. T. B. Camp, formerly in the employ of D. A. Bender & Co., as manager of their Insurance Agency, is now engaged in the same capacity with Messrs. The Famous Opera Singers. Annie Louise Carey and Clara Louise Kellogg are beyond question the most famous opera singers of modern times. In fact they have been universally acknowledged to be the leaders of their profession, as well as ladies of large experience and particularly good taste. They have probably traveled more extensively than any ladies on the stage, and, as a consequence, have had excellent opportunities of judging of the merits of different countries and their productions. It is certainly a very great credit to California and the balmy semi-tropical climate of the Pacific, to have had them pronounce Slava's Yosemite Cologne by far the best they have ever used in any country. —Barney Fitzgerald is at work in the tailor shop of the State prison.

—No stock report to day, the board having adjourned until after election.

—There are messages at the telegraph office for N. U. Baily and Frank Corbin.

—The Salt River boat will start to-morrow at twelve o'clock. The trip up the river will be free to all disappointed candidates.

—Some Reno Democrats admit the Morey letter is a forgery, but say that "a lie well stuck to is as good as the truth."

—A good many hats have been bet in Reno on the election. The White House has laid in a large stock to supply the unusual demand this week.

—The Mechanics' Store is growing in popularity. Mr. Poyser has a large list of friends in the country, and is adding to it all who get acquainted with him here.

—The tramp who was killed by the cars near Wadsworth on Sunday night, had the head and bust of a woman marked in India ink on his right forearm. The coroner's jury gave a verdict of accidental death, and the body was brought to Reno for burial.

Railroad Accident at Verdi.

VERDI, Nov. 1.

Train No. 7, east-bound, after coming to a full stop at Verdi station last night, started to pull down about ten car-lengths. In doing so the two cabooses attached to the rear broke loose, and ran into the rear end of the train, injuring two Chinamen and one white man, name unknown, also breaking in the drawheads of the cabooses and driving the rear trucks of the rear caboose up under the center of the car. An amusing incident occurred after the cars struck. An enterprising Italian or Spaniard, wishing to go to Reno, got on board of the caboose and began to groan, enquiring for some one that could speak Spanish, but some unfeeling wretch betrayed him, and he had to utilize the ticket he had just bought for Reno. A man of that presence of mind certainly deserves something from country of his adoption. Please notify Barnum of New York, and give the man a show.

The Mechanics' Store has full supplies of family groceries, including farm and dairy produce.

Process of Pyramid.

PYRAMID, Nev., Nov. 1.

EDITOR GAZETTE:—The Roman Eagle mine, owned by an Italian company in San Francisco, started up this morning. They only employ four men now, but within thirty days they intend to put on ten or twelve more. They have a good prospect.

The J. & K. mill is running like clock-work. They started the retort last night and before long will be turning out bullion. Well do the owners of the J. & K. deserve success for their perseverance.

We visited the lake a few days ago, caught a few fish, but did not have as good luck as usual. We think the Democratic electioneering has had a tendency to drive them away.

The Contrast Between Fair and Sharon.

Colonel Fair and Judge Belknap visited Carson yesterday, says the Times, inspecting the field for to-morrow's battle, and devising plans of attack on the guileless voters of Ormsby county. The gallant Colonel presented a wholesome and well-fed appearance, and appeared as easy in mind as if he were not an aspirant to the highest office, save one, in the gift of fifty millions of people, with his fate probably to be decided within forty-eight hours. If Mr. Fair fails of success it will not be for want of a liberal supply of the sinews of war, for it is evident that his henchmen have no lack of funds to meet ordinary and extraordinary expenses. His liberality in this respect is in striking contrast with the parsimony so far shown by Sharon. Presumably through Mr. Fair's aid the Democratic State and County Central Committee are well supplied with coin, and have settled bills for advertising, music, etc. promptly and generously. There is a marked difference in the bearing of the two Senatorial candidates. Sharon stalks around with a stride too long for one of his limited size, and ignores his humble constituents. Fair has a genial air and pleasant smile, takes the children by the hand, and, whether sincere or not, leaves a favorable impression.

Political Demonstration Last Evening.

Reno was ablaze with enthusiasm and patriotic fire last evening. The Republicans turned out in mass. Their torchlight procession made an imposing display, and they had imported something in the shape of a cannon from Wadsworth that made a terrific boom. Bonfires lit up the vicinity of the Pavilion and Theater. J. L. McFarlin and J. K. Everett had their places of business finely illuminated in honor of the Republican procession. The Republicans finally gathered in the Pavilion and the Democrats in the Theater. The Republican speakers had by far the largest audience. Their meeting was addressed by H. L. Fish, as chairman, and by Messrs. Boardman, Cain, Dawson and Bell. The Democrats were addressed by a number of local speakers. While the meetings were going on, the streets and saloons were full of men. Hundreds of people from the country were in town. Towards eleven o'clock the town settled down to its usual condition of quiet.

Shooting Affray in Virginia.

About 5 o'clock Sunday morning, says the Virginia Chronicle, two men had a quarrel in the Delta, and Eugene Markey, the athlete, interfered to prevent trouble. Markey had been attacked by Dick Prentice some hours previous, but had held him until he was willing to quit. Prentice drank considerable after that, and when Markey interfered in the quarrel going on in the saloon, Prentice pulled his pistol and started for him, saying: "You big fighter, what do you want to meddle for?" Markey kicked the pistol out of his hand, and in the struggle for the hold of it, he shot Prentice in the fleshy part of the left arm, and pulled again, but the weapon failed to go off, and he struck Prentice over the head with it, knocking him down and cutting him badly. Prentice was taken to the Sheriff's office, where his wounds, which are not dangerous, were dressed.

Markey was arrested for assault to kill, and was held in $1,000 bonds by Justice Moses to answer before the Grand Jury.

The Mechanics' Store keeps heavy boots, overalls, caps, blouses, shirts and miners' suits generally.

The "Gazette" for 1881.

Attention is called to an advertisement in another column of to-day's GAZETTE. It relates to the Weekly GAZETTE. In offering new subscribers the paper for the year 1881 for the small sum of one dollar, but one motive influences the proprietor, and that is to secure the names of the large classes who at present take no paper. People who already take the Enterprise, Journal or Chronicle find them well worth the money, and no one was ever solicited to drop another paper to take the GAZETTE. By securing a longer list the GAZETTE will grow in value and importance, and be of greater benefit to Reno and Washoe county. If all will try to help a little they will be doing themselves a service, for it will be the means of improving the paper.

Arrested for Bribery.

Amos Alt was this morning arrested on a charge of attempted bribery of a voter. Walker L. Baird lodged the complaint, alleging that Alt had offered him fifteen dollars to vote the Democratic ticket. Alt gave bonds in the sum of $1,000 and was discharged.

The law makes the bribery or intimidation of a voter a felony. The penalty is a fine of $1,000 or imprisonment for five years.

Personal.

Calders, the strong man, is in town. Gilbert Noxon goes east to-morrow night to visit friends in Canada.

Mrs. S. M. Jamison last night received news of the death of a sister in England.

F. W. Wetherill came in from Battle Mountain last night to vote. He returns to-morrow.

Look for our sign, the Mechanics' Store, on Virginia street, Reno. We keep anything you need in your family, and sell at the lowest prices.

None but good goods at the Mechanics' Store. No two prices. No double dealing.

Democratic Riot in Denver—Chinamen Killed and China Houses Gutted—300 Arrests.

DENVER, Nov. 1.

It is said that 8,000 illegal names have been registered here, and the city is full of roughs. Saturday night there was a Democratic procession. A considerable portion became intoxicated, and remained out all night. Sunday noon they made an assault on the Chinese houses, tearing down the buildings and driving out the Chinese. One was dragged from Hop Lee's place with a rope about his neck and his skull crushed in with boots and bricks. The police were called out, but were unable to control the mob. The fire department was ordered to throw water on the rioters, but the mob attacked them and badly wounded two firemen. Many Chinamen were fatally beaten, and one was rescued by the police and taken to jail, which was immediately surrounded by a mob who hurrahed for Hancock and yelled: "Lynch the leper." Special police managed to keep back the crowds. The other mob remained intact in the lower part of the city.

Up to 1 o'clock this morning the mob was going through the streets visiting all the Chinese houses and gutting them. An extra force of police and Deputy Sheriffs, numbering quite 2,000, have been sworn in, and have once fired with blank cartridges into the mob. The last report is that one Chinaman, far up town, was killed outright. Many persons have been knocked down. There are thousands of people on the streets, and the air is full of cries: "The Chinese must go," and "Hurrah for Hancock." The mob is unorganized and has developed no leader, which is one saving feature.

THE CITY QUIET—300 ARRESTS.

DENVER, Nov. 1.

The active response of citizens to the call of the authorities effectually checked the mob, and by midnight a very perceptible improvement was developed, which has steadily continued. Early this morning the miscreants raised a disturbance near the postoffice, but within a few minutes it was estimated that a thousand citizens, nearly all armed, were on the ground, and all the rioters at that point were arrested and sent to jail. Several hundred warrants have been sworn out by officers and between 200 and 300 arrests made. The city is now considered absolutely secure against any revival of mob rule, and the indignation among all classes is intense and earnest.

Greatest Running on Record.

LONDON, Nov. 1.

In the six-day contest for the Astley belt, which began this morning at Agricultural Hall, the betting at the start was two to one against Rowell, five to two against Brown, five to one against Dobler, five to one against Pegram, eight to one against Howard, and eight to one against Littlewood. The men started at a trot. At 10 o'clock this morning the score was as follows: Rowell 66 miles, Brown 61, Littlewood 53, Pegram 51, Howard 54, Dobler 61. At the start there was a great race for the lead between Rowell and Brown. The former accomplished the unprecedented feat of running 50 miles in 6 hours and 38 minutes. Brown has been off the track three times since the start, once for 35 minutes. The general opinion at present is that Rowell will win with Dobler second.

Score at three o'clock: Rowell 100 miles, Littlewood 93, Brown 78, Dobler 94, Howard 77, Pegram 71. Brown left the track at 35 minutes past 12 and has not yet returned. Rowell and Dobler have so far beaten anything on record.

the Rio Grande into Texas, and killed a corporal and two private soldiers. The Indians were pursued by Baldwin's company and driven back into the mountains of Mexico.

Election Troubles in New York—A Conflict of Authorities.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.

Late last night Supt. Walling, of the Police Department, telegraphed a general order to captains, declaring that his order of November first regarding serving warrants must be obeyed, and informing police captains he would hold them to strict accountability if it was disobeyed, and stating further that the Superintendent of Police was the only legal officer empowered to issue orders to the police force. This order of the Superintendent was because of contradictory and confusing orders of police commissioners who were generally regarded as influenced by their politics. The latest order of Supt. Walling aroused the Democrats this morning. Police Justice Duffy, accompanied by several Democratic leaders and counsel, entered the Superintendent's office, handed him forty-seven warrants and directed him to have them served, at the same time exhibiting an order for the arrest of the Superintendent if he refused. After some talk Superintendent Walling said he would have the warrants served. A large number of arrests have already been made for attempted illegal voting. A U. S. Deputy Marshall was arrested, charged with disorderly conduct at the polls. Police Justice Killdrecht discharged him with a reprimand. Over forty arrests of persons charged with illegal registration have been made upon warrants issued by Commissioner Davenport, who, with other U. S. Commissioners, held court in the Federal building. All were discharged. One Deputy Marshall was arrested for assaulting the Chief Marshall of one Assembly District, and was charged with drunkenness and neglect of duty. He was held in one thousand dollars bail.

Scraps of Election News.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.

Returns from Massachusetts show a large increase in votes in towns. It is thought that the Republican majority will be about as usual. A conflict between U. S. Supervisors and police is reported from New York, Chicago, St. Louis, Wilmington, Delaware, and other places. Many Supervisors have been arrested, but all were discharged, and the local officers making the arrests were arrested in turn and have likewise been discharged.

Ballot-box in South Carolina.

SUMTER, S. C., Nov. 2.

Armed Democrats crowd the polls and will not allow the Republicans to get to them. The poll managers refuse to hold the election. The Deputy Marshalls' authority is defied, and they are expelled from the polls. No election can be held in this county.

Fancies of Fashion.

Nothing has proven a more unsolvable riddle to that thoughtful and serious class of people who like to account, by rule and method, for everything they see, than the peculiar fascination which seems to attach to certain business houses in every large city, apparently without adequate cause. In all countries and in all branches of business it is the same. There are plenty of London tailors who could make a pair of trousers as well as Poole, yet the English aristocratic dandy of the first water would as soon wear no trousers at all as have them made by any other than Poole. So, also, in Paris, dress from Worth is in itself a passport to elegance, though others might equal his work. In New York, again, wedding cards must come from Tiffany, if the marriage is in "high life." Here, in Reno, no shoes will pass unless they come from John Sunderland's. His fine ladies' shoes are the height of elegance and no other would do the high-toned dames and lasses.

The Election in Reno.

Election day opened quietly in Reno. There were no drunks to be seen about the streets when the polls opened. The voting has been conducted in the most orderly and decorous manner. Up to one o'clock about 500 votes had been polled. The Democrats are exulting this afternoon, claiming that their whole county ticket will be elected. The Republicans are not sanguine, and assert that the Democrats brought a heavy sack into the field. It is charged that the votes of the foreign element were largely bought up by Democrats. A few of the saloons have been open for the sale of cigars, but no liquor has been openly sold. No disturbances had been reported or arrests made for illegal voting up to two o'clock this afternoon. The prospects are that a large vote will be polled. The result will not be known until to-morrow.

Business Leaving the County.

The Carson & Colorado railroad will injure Wadsworth considerably. Big teams will have to go elsewhere for business, and the blacksmith, wagon and harness shops will follow them. Mr. Walker will move his blacksmith shop to Walker Lake.

TALK IS CHEAP,

And So Are FINE Clothing, BOOTS, SHOES, HATS, GENTLEMEN'S AND BOYS' FINE FURNISHING GOODS.

If you go to the right place to get them. This is a mighty important point, for some people who assert that they sell cheap do nothing of the kind. We do not boast when we say that we defy competition in prices in anything in our line. Besides this we have only one price. We have no preferred customers. Everybody is treated alike at our establishment. Our stock is the largest and most complete ever offered in any part of this State. Everything we have is new. No old, musty and out-of-date goods can be found on our shelves. We receive daily by rail and express the latest and best goods, which are obtained at first hand and sold at prices below those now prevailing in New York and Chicago. Let the people come and judge of our prices and examine our stock before going into those humbugging, Cheap John shops, in which they drum into the ear of the customer that they sell at cost and even below cost. Anybody with common sense must know that they lie. No storekeeper sells goods for the fun of the thing. We make a profit on everything we sell, as every honest merchant does, and don't print foolish falsehoods in the vain hope of deceiving the public. One must make a profit to live. We particularly call attention to our full stock of fancy underwear, such as is kept nowhere else in Reno. This class of goods form one of our specialties. Orders from the country promptly attended to. Look out for the White Building with the Gold Sign.

WORLD-RENOVED

VERMIN DESTROYER

WHICH IS KNOWN TO BE FAR superior to anything yet discovered for Killing Rats, Mice, Insects on Poultry, Ants, Bugs, Cockroaches, Black Beetles, Fleas on Dogs, Blight and Insects on Plants, Moths in Furs, Ticks or Scab on Sheep or Goats, also on Cattle, etc., etc.

This preparation has been applied with great success against the insects that attack the Coffee Plants, and would doubtless be as efficacious with the Tea Plants.

SOLD IN PACKETS

At 25 cents per packet, or six packets for $1 25.

The Powder is warranted free from all bad smell, and will keep in any climate. It may be spread everywhere without risk, as it is quite harmless to cats or dogs, as they will not eat it.

DIRECTIONS ON EACH PACKET.

Manufacture—Gravel Lane, Hounsditch, City of London, England.

The above discovery has gained for PROF. HERMAN a Silver Prize Medal at the International Exhibition of Victoria, Australia, of 1886, besides numerous Testimonials.
